Intel® Developer Zone

Hello Dominic,

Thanks for letting us know about your concern. However, kindly note that any and every concerns regarding FPGA products, its license file and licensing are handled in the below forum by our internal team via Community Forum Support.

Community Forum Link: https://community.intel.com/t5/Intel-FPGA-Software-Installation/bd-p/fpga-software-installation-licensing

As much as we would like to assist you, we are sorry to let you know that this ticket is being closed. However, as mentioned, we would suggest you post your query in our forum for our Community Forum Support.

We assure you that our internal team would get back to you there in a timely manner. The handling of your query would be the same as in a support ticket. The only difference would be the channel.

Note: Make sure not to provide any private information such as license serial number, password, purchase document, a registration email, etc, in the forum posts. That would make it publicly available. Our internal team will request it via private message or email when required.

Hope you have a nice day ahead!

Regards,
Soumya
