

The screenshot shows a Windows 7 desktop environment. The taskbar at the bottom contains icons for Internet Explorer, Start & Sanitary, Internet Explorer, and a folder. The desktop background is blue with a white wave pattern. On the left side, there is a vertical column of application icons including Computer, Tecplot 360, join.me, Recycle Bin, VLC, Remote Desktop, Adobe Reader, YouSendit, Snipping Tool, AutoCAD Civil 3D, LINKS, VNC Viewer, Design Review, XTEMP, Google Earth, EditPad Lite, 3D-Tool, Lotus Notes, CMD Prompt, Roxio Creator, Convert, SolidWorks 2013 x64, Deltak Vision, SolidWorks eDrawing..., GoToMeet..., SolidWorks Explorer 2013, HydGal, Storm & Sanitary, and Internet Explorer.

The main window is a web browser displaying a comment on the Intel software forum. The address bar shows the URL: <http://software.intel.com/en-us/comment/1730549#comment-1730549>. The browser menu includes File, Edit, View, Favorites, Tools, and Help. The comment is from Steve Lionel (Intel) on Wednesday, 04/03/2013 at 11:17. The text of the comment reads: "For old versions we generally make only the last update available. I am going to move this thread over to the Licensing forum, as I can't see a reason why you're not being shown the installer that includes VS2008 Shell." Below the comment is a "Top" link. The next comment is from James Tullos (Intel) on Wednesday, 04/03/2013 at 14:14. The text of the comment reads: "Hi Evan, I believe you chose an incorrect link. At the Intel® Registration Center, there should be two Intel® Visual Fortran products listed. One is called Intel® Visual Fortran Composer XE for Windows*. The other is called Intel® Visual Fortran Composer XE for Windows* (incl. Microsoft Visual Studio Shell and Libraries*). You want the second one. The direct link is <https://registrationcenter.intel.com/regcenter/Download.aspx?productid=1674>. Here, choose version 11.1, and the first listed file should be the one you want. Please let me know if this is it or if you need additional assistance." Below the comment is a "Top" link and a "Back to original post" link. At the bottom of the browser window, there is a "Leave a Comment" button and a language dropdown menu set to "English". The system tray at the bottom right shows the time as 2:47 PM on 4/3/2013.
